1. Early in December 1948 over 1,000 pamphlets were distributed in markets and other public places in the vicinity of Tjikampek. These pamphlets stated that on 1 January 1949 attacks would be launched simultaneously by the Dipisi Bambu Runtjing on all Dutch positions in rural and urban Batavia.
2. Javanese extremists, mostly men and officers of the Siliwangi Division, are operating in rural areas east of Tjikampek, and Bantamese, infiltrating through rural Bogor, are operating in areas west of Tjikampek.
3. Soetaatmadja, former commandant of the Pelopor (Japanese youth organization), and six of his lieutenants were arrested in Batavia on 5 December 1948.
4. Kiban, leader of these infiltrants, has not been arrested. He has been made an area leader by the provincial administration.
